November 17, 18 , 2018

Roslyn Levin

Sumi-e or Japanese Brush Painting –Watercolour:

In Sumi-e or Japanese Brush Painting, one moves with grace, strength, flexibility and balance. The artist is challenged to create paintings of simplicity and eloquence. You will learn more brush control and sensitivity that leads to a strength in your brushwork which will enhance whichever medium you should choose. On the first day of this workshop the students will learn the basic brushstrokes and apply them to paint the traditional subject of bamboo.

Students are welcome to email Roslyn with the kinds of flowers or plants, etc they are interested in so she can try to include them in the workshop. Both new and returning students are welcome!

Spring Semester

April 06, 07, 2019

David McEown (cspwc)

Arctic Watercolour Workshop

Painting subjects of Polar Bears, Icebergs will be explored to study light, colour, wildlife and essential watercolour techniques.

Watercolour's magical flowing spontaneity and ethereal softness as well as its ability to make crisp, highly defined form will be practiced while we explore compositions to celebrate the northern landscape! www.artistjourneys.com

May 04, 05, 2019

Shelley Prior

Watercolour: Shiny Things!

In this workshop you will discover how to create beautiful transparent glass and reflective metal objects. The workshop will show you that with the proper use of colour and contrast you can create amazingly realistic effects. Learn how to tackle what seems complicated and break it down into easier-than-you-think steps. Photo reference required.
